

To Whom It May Concern;

I avoided the Super Bowl Half Time because Janet Jackson is a person of low morality. But saw the replay of the incident uncensored on two news programs. It was bad enough to hear it happened but since I hadn't seen it my local news producers felt I had to see it uncensored and unwarned of its offensive nature.

It seems that standards not only need to be placed on Half-time entertainment, but also on TV news and their idea of what they can show without warning their audiences.

Please put heavy sanctions on all involved in the Half-time porn show.

Thank you,
